

Cleaning up for company

ABOVE: Workers on board the barge Dean R. Smith use a crane to scoop up sediments from the harbor basin behind the DECC complex Thursday. The bottom is being deepened in preparation for the Sept. 14 arrival of the tourist ship the Columbus.

LEFT: Easton Siekkinen, 10, of Hibbing turns away from the binoculars he was using to watch the crane barge remove the sediment.

Photos by Bob King / rking@duluthnews.com